

HONORS NEWSLETTER

November 10, 1988

We have a new feature for the newsletter, in our continuing effort to keep ya'll informed about what's happening in the world today. It's going to be called Culture Update, or CU, for short (Sorta catchy, huh?). We have brochures in the office if you are interested in the details of a program.

ABBREVIATIONS

Charlotte Symphony Orchestra - CSO

Spirit Square - SS

Ovens Auditorium - Ovens

CU

CSO-Mozart, Fri 18Nov at 8:15. $10.80. SS

CSO-Joseph Kalichstein, pianist, performing Copland and Beethoven, Wed 30Nov at 8:15. $6.50. Ovens

Obviously, this is not a complete list of what's going on in Charlotte and the surrounding area, it's basically the stuff I think might be interesting.

If anyone knows of an Honors student who is not receiving mail from us on a regular basis, or at all, please have them get in touch with us to find out what the problem is.

Along similar lines, if you know of someone who is interested in the Program, or whom you think is a likely candidate, have that person contact us for information. As you all should know, a high GPA is less important than a desire to stretch one's mind.

Those who went to the Convocation Dinner last night apparently thoroughly enjoyed themselves; the food was really good, and the company was better. Hopefully the new chancellor will continue to give Honors students the opportunity to participate. If so, everyone should keep this chance in mind for next year.
